

Portfolio Website Documentation

Notes:

- My target audience will most likely be potential employers.
- I created the home page image using Photoshop to draw attention to the page.
- I plan to make a good amount of games in my own time, which is why I decided to go for a multi-page design rather than just one.
  - This being said, I tried extra hard to make the page as responsive for smaller screens (ie. tablet or phone) as possible.
- No current plans for improving the Home page, but there is definitely space to expand if needed (same goes for the About Me page).
